DEDICATION . . .

"Count your garden by the flowers,
Never by the leaves that fall,
Count your days by golden hours,
Don't remember clouds at all.
Count your nights by stars, not shadows,
Count your life by smiles, not tears,
And with joy on every morning
Count your age by friends, not years."

Author Unknown

. . . MISS LILLIAN RICKER

Miss Ricker has meant so much to us, the class of '69, as a counselor, a respected adult, and a beloved friend. She has been a staff member at L.H.S. for over 30 years, motivating students and making them conscious of their own worth. It is a characteristic of the person that she teaches by example rather than by words, teaches pupils rather than subjects, and inspires rather than drives. The concern and interest she shows for the students has made her dean of girls and counselor to the boys as well. Never anticipating recognition, she has unselfishly given of herself, her time, and effort. We feel that she has achieved the ultimate success in life by making others successful.

Principal Emile S. Johnson

Congratulations:

You have received from your teachers and school the basics that are necessary to enter industry and the Industrial World. May you continue to work diligently giving an honest hour for a fair wage.

Industry is looking for eager and willing young men who desire to learn and advance themselves in an ever changing technological society. May you continue to study in your chosen work so that you may advance and your achievement will bring credit to your School, City, State and Country and your God.

Best wishes and Godspeed in your life's work.

Emile S. Johnson
Principal

Assistant Principal John F. Joyce

As you reach the end of your secondary school years, it may come to you as a startling disclosure and revelation that you have been in effect your own greatest teachers.

Like your good parents who have deputized responsibility to them for several hours each day during the past three years, the members of the faculty here have been personally as well as professionally concerned not just with imparting, but also with shaping and guiding—not merely the pouring-in, but, more important, with the leading forth, which is the root meaning in now vanishing Latin of the word "education."

But if your teachers have pointed out the way—which, as you now know, is never straight and easy—the lessons you have learned, the outlooks you have discerned, the appropriate independence of thinking you are developing, and the values you have acquired and affirmed, have been in the final analysis self-taught.

So it is now, and so it will always be throughout your lives.

Together we have laid the foundation and erected the framework of the structure. How you complete, adorn, and furnish it will be in accordance with this unending process of self-teaching.

My happy association with the Class of 1969 convinces me that individually and as a group you have already learned much of lasting worth besides what was contained in the textbooks. You have already effected a fine balance of idealism with realism. I have few doubts or misgivings about the life and the future that you will make for yourselves and your world.

Remember too that graduation is neither a terminal nor a parting. You are and always will be a member of the Leominster High School family, and wherever you go and whatever you do, our loyal and familial pride in you and our affectionate good wishes for you will attend you always.

John F. Joyce
Assistant Principal

Principal Aldrich V. Cousins

We who have helped to nurture that intellectual growth, so very necessary in today's demanding society, proudly feel that our efforts have not been in vain.

Your performances in all areas of cultural and physical development bring promise of greater recognition in the future. We who remain behind, who soon will become part of your past, wish you well. Your achievements are the rewards we welcome.

Yours is a glorious heritage that recognizes no limits. You were born and reared in a free society where an education in a free public school system is guaranteed. You are the envy of most of the young people of the world. We who have had a part in preparing you for greater tasks ahead, sincerely hope that you will always be able to say, "I tried to do my best."

Above all we pray that you will carry away with you the lesson we have so earnestly tried to impart to you, that with every right there is an obligation and a responsibility. Your obligation is to earn the respect of your fellow man and serve your country responsibly.

CURRICULUM . . .

english

Under the supervision of Mrs. Florence Farwell, head of the English Department, daily English classes taught the skills of making speeches, using proper grammar, reading literature, writing essays, and organizing outlines. Our creative abilities and talents were fully developed during the course of the year.

foreign languages

Leominster High School's Foreign Language Department teaches Latin, French, German, and Italian. The department faculty, headed by Mr. Eugene Rheault, places special emphasis on introducing students to European culture and daily life. The modern language laboratory is one of the most prominent examples of our school's excellent facilities.

art

Leominster High School has always had a special concern for the development of esthetic appreciation and talent. The art course taught by Mr. Pelletier gives our students a chance to express themselves in such artistic media as oils, charcoal, and water colors; and to be creative even while learning.

music

The aim of Mr. Bisceglia's classes is to give students a better understanding and appreciation of the beauty of music.

public speaking

Through group discussions, individual speeches, panels, pantomimes, and similar techniques, the public speaking classes headed by Mrs. Elsie Adams learned how to communicate effectively and confidently.

industrial arts

Students enrolled in the industrial arts course were introduced to a wide range of areas essential in our technical world today. The boys proved their ability in working with tools, materials, and industrial processes.

science

The Science Department, headed by Mr. Michael Cavanaugh, offered a wide range of courses. Fascinating experiments, careful research, challenging formulas, and an abundance of available knowledge, made each science class a valuable, enjoyable, and memorable one.

math

Learning to think means learning to reason. Students are taught to use logic as well as "cook-book" formulas in the many mathematics courses offered. The able department is headed by Miss Helen Hartnett.

social sciences

Under the leadership of Mr. John Magan, director of our diversified social studies department, we absorbed the main ideas of American and World History. The basic principles of economics, sociology and human relations were also studied in depth.

home economics

Under the direction of Miss Mary Louise Cavanaugh, home economics students spend many hours slaving over hot stoves, learning the finer points of sewing and practicing the etiquette that will be required of them as homemakers.

distributive education

The Distributive Education course, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Gottsegen, provided first-hand work experience for students planning to pursue careers in retailing and merchandising.

business education

The clicking away on adding machines, the clacking of keys on typewriters, and the flipping of dictation pads are all familiar sounds of the B. E. Department, which is headed by Mrs. Betty Leonard. In this department students learn the skills necessary in the business world.

physical education

Development of a physically and mentally sound body is the goal of the physical education program. Included in the three sessions a week are instructions and actual participation in seasonal sports, gymnastics, and exercises.

auto mechanics

Mr. Gilbert, the automotive supervisor, skillfully taught his students to analyze and repair all malfunctions in any make, model and year vehicle manufactured anywhere in the world. The repairs were performed on registered vehicles belonging to the students and to the teachers.

electronics

The electronic department of the trade school conducted a four-year course supervised by Mr. Moryl. The fundamentals and application of the basic direct and alternating current theory were introduced to the freshmen and sophomores. The junior level consisted of basic electronics and applying their knowledge to circuitry, while the senior level was a summarization of their previous three years' work.

machine shop

The machine shop, headed by Mr. Algedio Membrino, offered the skills of tool and die molding and its related fundamentals. The knowledge the students acquired was also put to practice.

drafting related

In drafting related the students absorbed the fundamentals and mathematics involved in drafting, supervised by Mr. Harrington. The related room was fully equipped for experimenting in stress, elasticity and structure of metal.

drafting

In the drafting department, under the direction of Mr. Hemingway, the students acquired the knowledge pertaining to the basics and complexities of technical drawing.

academic week

During academic week the daily grind of book learning dragged on. Intensive instruction was given in the fields of English, history, mathematics, and language arts.

carpentry

The goal of the carpentry course was a preparation for future endeavors. Mr. Mooney and Mr. Burton taught the freshmen and sophomores the fundamentals of this trade while the juniors and seniors engaged in building a model home. The final phase of the course was conducted by Mr. Geary in his blueprint reading and architectural drawing classes.

SENIORS . . .

As we approach graduation, let us remember one of our classmates, Andrew Lord.

"I remember the gleams and glooms that dart
Across the school-boy's brain;
The song and the silence in the heart,
That in part are prophecies, and in part
Are longings wild and vain.
And the voice of that fitful song
Sings on, and is never still;
"A boy's will is the wind's will,
And the thoughts of youth are long, long thoughts."

—Longfellow

CLASS ADVISORS

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Seniors—During our final year at Leominster High School, it has been my great honor to act as your representative in the capacity of president. For this honor, I sincerely thank you. Together, we have performed many tasks and faced many problems. We have succeeded in many situations, but failed in many others. I hope, however, we have learned that accomplishment can be realized only through true concern and involvement. If there is but one message which I can leave with you, it is to be concerned in all things in life, for the future of mankind is dependent upon us and our willingness to be involved.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Class of 1969—Through the past years we have shared a part of our lives which we will treasure forever. For me, they have been most challenging and unique years, which have helped to develop character and wisdom. Allow me to thank you for giving me the opportunity to serve as your Class President.

In future years we will face new and different problems. Let us always remember that, with truth and determination, we can face the world and all of its problems.

Last, but not least, we would like to think of our accomplishments at Leominster Trade High School as indications that our ability and wisdom have grown so that we may now take our place in the world. Surely then, we can justly say that from our class will come the leaders of the future.

The doors open and we begin to learn. For the Sophomores, September is a new and strange experience; the upperclassmen view the coming year with optimistic expectations. The days slip by and soon we fall into a happy routine.

. . . And the Holiday Season Is Upon Us . . .

Snowbound Inn

This year's winter festival was held on February 15 at City Hall. The "Snowbound Inn" theme was beautifully carried out with ski posters and miniature sleigh centerpieces. Many lovely couples spent an enjoyable evening dining and dancing, indicating that the semi-formal dance is one of the more enjoyable winter activities.

Student Council

In their preoccupation with their own work, students sometimes forget that they have their own student government. This winter the student council initiated action aimed at making itself a relevant and important aspect of student life at L.H.S. With all of its fine members working together, the council surely will succeed.

Magnet Editorial Staff

Winter for the Magnet staff meant deadline after deadline and hour after hour of hard work. Arguments flared when sentiments clashed, and at times it seemed as though the Magnet just wouldn't make it. Winter brought mistakes and regrets aplenty. But it brought more: it brought the one triumph of six people learning to work and think together.

Winter Work

As the weather became cold and the nights grew longer, the students of L.H.S. moved into a regular winter routine of work and play. Daily the students trooped to school, sat at their desks, and did their work, oblivious to the bitter cold outside. Only record-breaking Northeasters could break the pattern. With schoolwork and with Camelot practices and with the many varied activities that make Leominster High what it is, the students found plenty to do in the winter months.

SPORTS . . .

Football

Even though the past football season may not have brought L.H.S. a championship, there was a certain pride among the players which helped them overcome their weaknesses and build a winning season. Never considered capable of winning the championship at the beginning of the season, the "Devils" made others recognize them. They were young, inexperienced, and hurt by the loss of some of their best players, yet they never gave up hope no matter the obstacle. The Thanksgiving defeat to Fitchburg was heartbreaking, but, if possible, the team's great effort should be recognized and remembered. It was a team effort throughout the entire campaign which brought them their success. The memories of the accomplishments of seniors: Phil Carr, Michael Twitchell, Thomas Bisol, Tony Piermarini, Kenneth Tucker, Fred Scherer, Randall Haase, Paul McHugh, Gregg Picucci, Gerald Gravalles, Richard Gaillardet, and the rest of the team should hopefully be remembered for many years to come.

Soccer

It was another tremendous season for the Blue Devil's soccer team. Under the brilliant mentorship of coach Emile "Bubsy" Johnson, Jr., the team compiled a record of 11-1-1, good enough for the championship of the county and propelling them into State Tournament Play. This was the second championship in as many years of play for the Blue and White. The added year of experience also was evident in State Tournament competition as the team, although losing 3-1, made a strong showing and proved that the caliber of play in this area is rapidly improving. Championship teams are not made by one or two star players and this year's team was no exception. The all-around offensive play of Co-captain Gus Boucher, Philip Hanno, Dennis Somma, and Peter Grimes, plus the desire and hustle of defensemen, Co-captain Neil Shepard, Dave Marchand, William Rooney, and Micheal Scaramuzzi, all contributed to the success of the team. In the words of Coach Johnson "It was a great season!"

BASKETBALL

The Blue Devil's basketball team advanced this year from a predicted 50-50 season to a championship level of performance. From the beginning of the year, great desire drove the team through many tiring practices and games. It was the co-captains' duty during the exhausting schedule to keep up the team's morale, and Kip Crowley and Fred Scherer performed their duty admirably. Hustle and durability have been the Devil's greatest assets. Despite a critical lack of height the team battled its way into the District III semifinals. Only a much taller team from Saint Bernard's could finally kill the fighting Blue Devils.

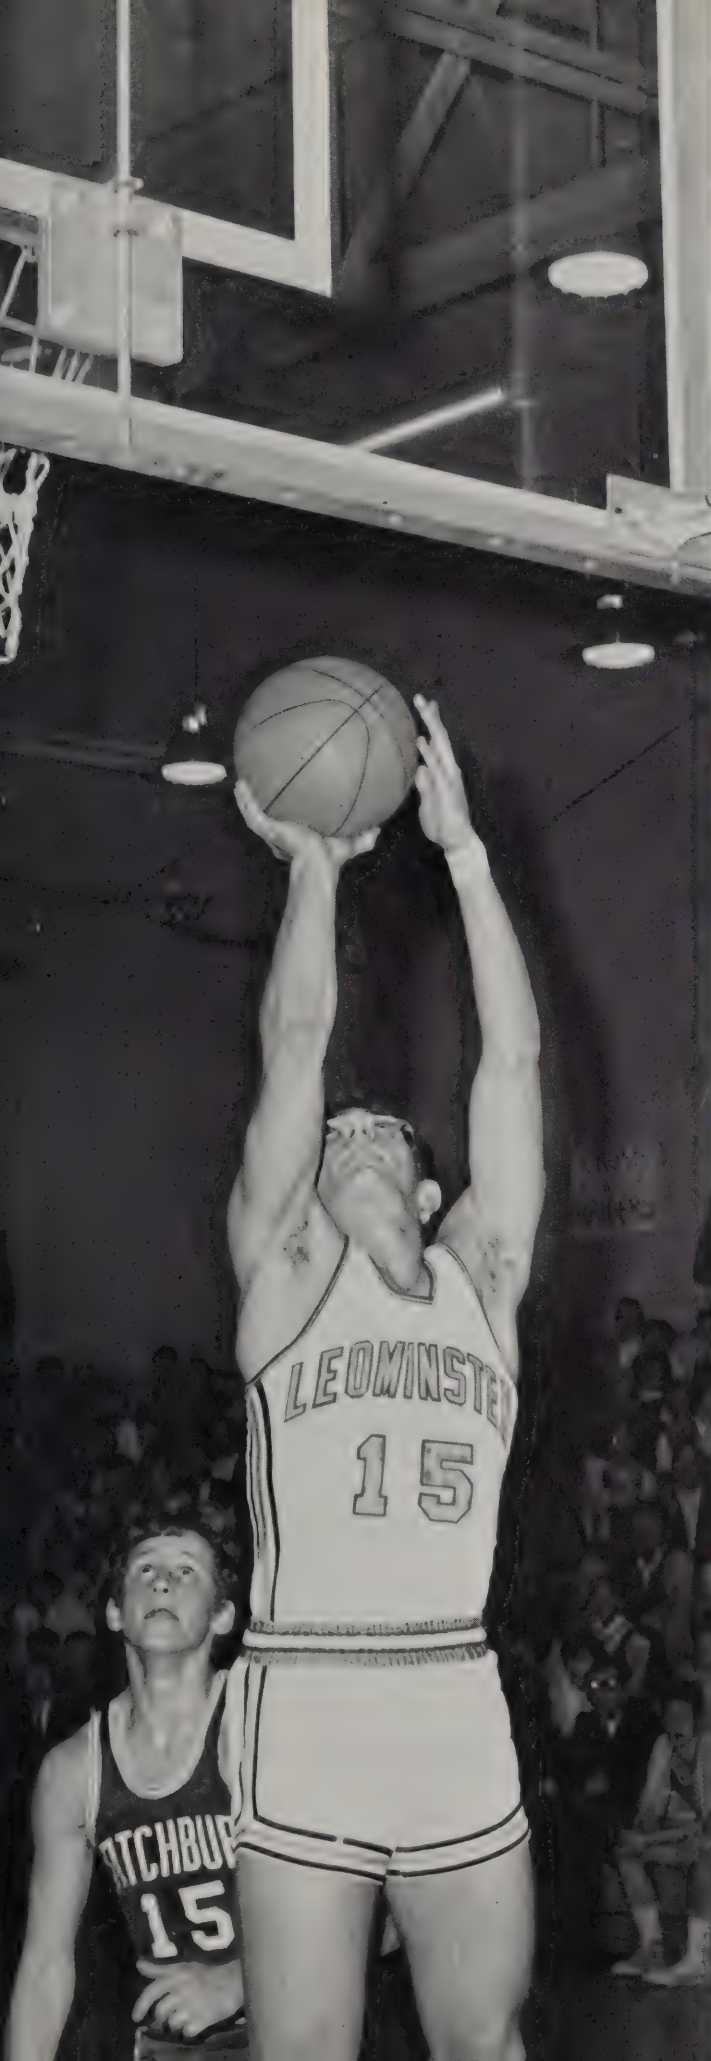

Coach Damko expressed fully after the Worcester North play-off game the feeling Leominster High has about its team: "The team, by winning tonight, has proved itself not a good team, but a great team."

the sporting spirit

To brag little, to lose well,
 To crow gently if in luck,
 To pay up, to own up,
 To shut up if beaten,
 Are the virtues of a sporting man.

Few of us are faster than a speeding bullet, more powerful than a locomotive, or able to leap tall hurdles at a single bound; we are not supermen, but sportsmen. We play to win, but even more, just because we love to.

Camelot

The Music Department proudly presented on March 6th, 7th, and 8th, the production "Camelot," the legend of a magical land of "might for right" and the famous triangle of Arthur, Guenevere, and Lancelot which caused its downfall. Congratulations to the hardworking students whose time and effort made this musical a smashing success. "Don't let it be forgot, that once there was a spot, for one brief shining moment that was known as Camelot!"

G.A.A.

A rose, like friendship, blossoms and grows.
The more petals there are, the lovelier the rose.
The sweeter the fragrance, the richer
the hue,
The greater the friendship is cherished by you.
May your rose and your friendship
the loveliest be,
And remember, one petal blossoms
for me.

"The Lady"

"The Going Thing" in Fashion

And what a "going thing" it was, with pant-suits, mini skirts, and wild colors. Everything was completely mod, from Jane's dance to Anna and Patty all caged up ready to go. The boys also added a hint of professionalism. Patty and Bob ended the show with a sleepy "good night."

Spring Social

The Social is the one event of the year which honors the girls' mothers. Each senior girl presented her mother with a rose, which is the symbol of G.A.A. The entertainment and the refreshments were terrific, and Patty Linenkemper did a lovely job on the table decorations.

14th Annual Banquet

May 28 marked the end for the seniors in Girls' Athletic Association. They received roses and awards as a final salute to their three years as athletes and friends. The highlight of the evening was when the president, Jane Gorham, received the Outstanding Athlete award.

A Midsummer Night's Dream

On Saturday Evening, May 24th, the Junior Class presented "A Midsummer Night's Dream." Music by Perry Conte and the romantically decorated high school cafeteria, complete with shimmering pink curtains and a quaint wooden bridge, made this a night that won't soon be forgotten.

Theme from Romeo and Juliet
 What is a youth?
 Impetuous fire.
 What is a maid?
 Ice and desire.
 The world wags on.
 A rose will bloom.
 It then will fade.
 So does a youth.
 So does the fairest maid.
 Caper the cape, but sing me
 the song.
 Death will come soon to hush us along, sweeter than honey and bitter as gall.
 Love is a task and it never will pall, sweeter than
 honey and bitter as gall.
 Cupid, he rules us all.
 A rose will bloom.
 It then will fade.
 So does a youth;
 So does the fairest maid.

tennis

This year's boys' tennis team was the largest in their four year history. They won eleven matches and lost seven. Brian McCarthy led all area players with sixteen singles victories and only one loss. He also performed well in the State Tournament.

Girls' tennis is a recent addition to the long list of athletics at L.H.S. The team's season was not marked with outstanding success or victory, but they are gaining experience. This year they learned much under the coaching of Mr. Zarmair Shepherd and are looking forward to many better seasons.

farewell assembly

The time came for the Seniors to say goodbye to the faculty and undergraduates. This also marked the last time the classes of 1969, 1970, and 1971 would be assembled together in one group.

seniors saying goodbye

senior reception

The Senior Reception is the one night of the year when the parents have an opportunity to meet the friends that they have heard so much about. Although the seniors soon grew weary of shaking hands and standing in line, they did manage to greet parents and friends graciously.

I Feel and Seek the Light I Cannot See

Classes come and go at L.H.S. as everywhere, and the class of 1969 passed out of existence as it was destined to do. On a warm and sunny June day, the graduates marched together for the last time and received their diplomas. It was a sad but bright June Sunday for parents, students, and teachers.

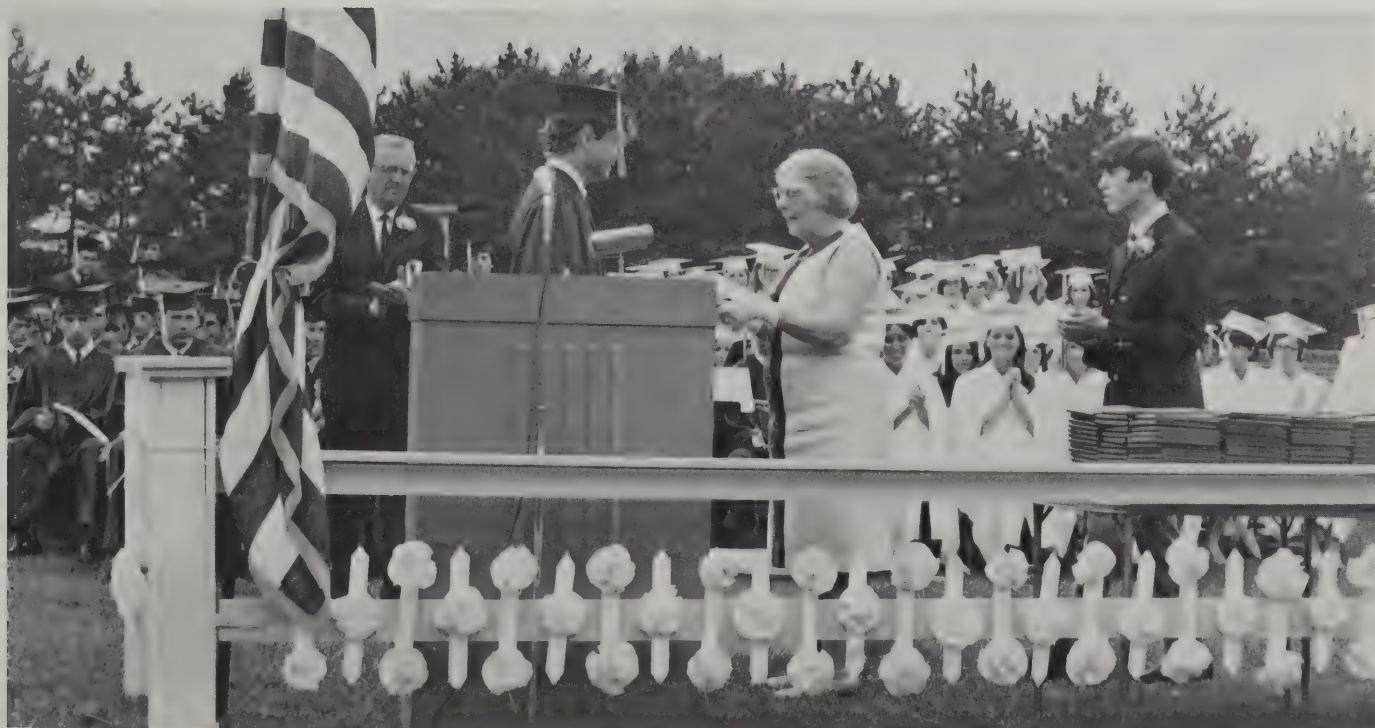

Our class has left much as a legacy during three years at high school. It has been unique in itself, not a class of drudges but a class of free spirit. Our class was not a popular class with the school, it was not a class with steady goals and steady achievement. It was not a class with unity and pride. Rather, it was a group of almost 400 individuals, each with his own mind and own ideals. Our class might go far and it might not—either way, the Class of 1969 will be remembered at Leominster High.

Graduation

"Whatsoever Thy Hand Findeth To Do, Do It With Thy Might."

ECCLESIASTES 9:10

With graduation, the 1969 Magnet comes to an end. The creating of the yearbook has been a long and stormy task; finishing it is a relief and a pleasure. We have been criticized, both justly and unjustly—our only defense is that we tried "with our might."

Alma

Mater

Words by Robert Cormier '42

Music by Alphonse Piermarini '42

Upon the hill you stand upright
Against the storm of time and tide.
Your glory is our guiding light;
Your nobleness our pride.
We raise our voices now in song
And send your praise across the sky.
You served us faithfully and long;
Your spirit shall not die.

CHORUS

Hail, O Alma Mater, hail to you,
Your noble heart, forever proud and true.
And though the years are dark and long,
This will be our song forever more.
The trust you gave us we shall not forget,
For faith can never know regret.
The star of truth, the symbol of our youth,
We praise you, Leominster High.
